

SCHEDULED SPEAKERS

4th ANNUAL EDISCOVERY SUMMIT - 10/01/10

US DISTRICT JUDGE JAMES ROSENBAUM (RET.) US DISTRICT COURT, DISTRICT OF MINNESOTA

Judge Rosenbaum is a Minnesota native who began practice in Chicago, Illinois, as a VISTA lawyer, trying federal civil rights cases. In 1972, he returned to private practice in Minnesota, specializing in trial work, and later was named one of Minnesota's "100 Most Influential Lawyers." In 1981, Judge Rosenbaum was appointed Minnesota's United States Attorney, serving until 1985, when he was appointed to the United States District Court. From 1997 to 2005, Judge Rosenbaum served as the Eighth Circuit's elected representative to the Judicial Conference of the United States, the Judiciary's governing authority. His articles in The Green Bag, In Defense of the Delete Key, In Defense of the Hard Drive, In Defense of the Sugar Bowl, and In Defense of Rule 808, are recognized for their analysis of the intersection of law, privacy and technology. For the past several years Judge Rosenbaum has lectured, both at home and abroad, on legal technology, electronic discovery, and intellectual property issues, and he serves on the Advisory Board of The Sedona Conference®

STEVEN BENNETT, ESQ. JONES DAY - NEW YORK, NEW YORK

Steven Bennett is a partner in the New York office of Jones Day, where his practice focuses on domestic and international commercial litigation and arbitration, including cases involving bankruptcy, construction, corporate, energy, insurance, intellectual property, and securities. He also serves as chair of the firm's e-Discovery Committee. Before joining Jones Day, he served as an Assistant U.S. Attorney in the Southern District of New York and Chief of its Tax and Bankruptcy Unit. He is a member of the Large Case Advisory Committee for the American Arbitration Association and a member of the ADR Subcommittee of the New York State Bar Association Committee on Civil Litigation. Mr. Bennett is the author of Arbitration: Essential Concepts (American Lawyer Media, 2002) and writes a continuing column, "Arbitration," which has appeared in the New York Law Journal since 2004. He is a founding member of The Sedona Conference® Working Group 6 on International Electronic Information Management, Discovery and Disclosure. He also co-teaches courses on advanced civil procedure (e-discovery) at Rutgers Law School, and similar courses at New York Law School and Fordham.

BILL SPEROS, ESQ. BAKER, HOSTETLER - CLEVELAND, OHIO

Mr. Speros is an attorney who serves law firms, in-house corporate counsel and governmental entities by leading litigation-related automation projects. He does so by marshaling technology to help attorneys and staff acquire, assess, produce documents and to present discovered documents. He manages the acquisition, analysis and presentation of evidence for corporate counsel and their law firms. Mr. Speros frequently speaks at national and regional technology-related conferences including the American Bar Association's TechShow, LawNet's national conference, various continuing legal education seminars and other legal industry conferences.

DUANE LITES, DIRECTOR OF LITIGATION SUPPORT JACKSON WALKER - DALLAS, TEXAS

Duane Lites has over 20 years of litigation support experience, and has spent 12 of those managing Litigation Support departments in several large law firms. He is currently the Director of Litigation Support at Jackson Walker LLP in Dallas, TX. He is responsible for coordinating all Litigation Support technology services for the Firm's attorneys, paralegals and support staff. He is a frequent speaker and very active in the litigation support industry. He is former President of the DFW Association of Litigation Support Managers (DFWALSM), a member of the Executive Committee of the National Association of Litigation Support Managers (NALSM), Owner/moderator of the National Litigation Support Listserv with over 8,500+ members, member of the EDMR Metrics 2 project, and on the Editorial Board of the Litigation Today Magazine.

MATT RITA, ESQ.
FORD & HARRISON - DENVER, COLORADO

Matt Rita's practice encompasses complex litigation at both the trial and appellate levels, with substantial experience in the employment law arena. While serving as an advocate in adversarial contexts, he provides substantive legal advice and counseling on an ongoing basis. He strives to keep clients apprised of developments in the law, both informally and through publications and presentations. Most recently, he presented a national webinar on caregivers in the modern workplace, which followed several presentations he had given on topics such as new Federal Rule of Evidence 502 and ethical issues in the age of electronic discovery.

SEAN R. GALLAGHER, ESQ.
POL SINELLI SHUGHART PC - DENVER, COLORADO

Sean Gallagher is a shareholder in the Denver, Colorado office of Polsinelli Shughart PC, where he handles a wide breadth of complex commercial litigation matters including computer software litigation, fraud and misrepresentation claims, corporate governance disputes, and employment disputes. Mr. Gallagher has been involved in helping companies handle records management and eDiscovery issues since 1994. Mr. Gallagher counsels clients in all aspects of the records management and eDiscovery life cycle. He is the co-chair of the Technology Subcommittee of the American Bar Association's Employment Rights and Responsibilities committee, and regularly speaks and moderates programs on electronic discovery around the country. He is a member of The Sedona Conference's Working Group on Best Practices for Electronic Document Retention and Production, and recently drafted white papers for The Sedona Conference on proportionality and judicial tools for eDiscovery. He is currently leading the Sedona Conference team that is drafting the conference's newest commentary on "Proportionality in the e-Discovery Process." Gallagher was selected for inclusion in The Best Lawyers in America® in 2011. Mr. Gallagher has also been listed named by the prestigious Chambers USA guide as a Leading Lawyer for Business and for the last five years has been recognized as a Colorado "SuperLawyer." Mr. Gallagher received his B.B.A. from Baylor University in 1984 and his J.D. from the University of Denver College of Law in 1987.

