

CLE
CREDITS AVAILABLE!

SCHEDULED SPEAKERS 6th ANNUAL EDISCOVERY SUMMIT - OCTOBER 5, 2012

Colorado Association of Litigation Support Professionals

MAGISTRATE JUDGE PAUL GREWAL USDC, NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

US District Court, Northern District of California, Magistrate Judge Paul S. Grewal was appointed in 2010. He has presided over and settled criminal and civil cases in a wide range of subject areas, including patent, employment, civil rights, commercial contract, trademark, and federal misdemeanor cases. He serves as a member of the court's Technology Practice and Patent Local Rules Committees. Judge Grewal received his Bachelor of Science from MIT, where he was elected to Tau Beta Pi and Sigma Xi, and his law degree from the University of Chicago. Judge Grewal worked in private practice for several years prior to serving on the bench. His clients ranged from large technology and biotechnology firms to small medical device and financial firms to individual inventors. He also was registered to practice before the Patent and Trademark Office, and his practice included re-examinations before the PTO.

PATRICK OOT, ESQ. US SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION WASHINGTON, D.C.

Mr. Oot is the Special Counsel for Electronic Discovery at the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission. Prior to joining the SEC, he was the Director of Electronic Discovery and Senior Litigation Counsel at Verizon in Washington, D. C. Inside Counsel Magazine named Verizon's e-discovery team as one of the ten most innovative legal groups of 2006 and 2007. Mr. Oot has extensive experience in discovery practices involving commercial litigation, regulatory filings, and antitrust matters. He was charged with advising Verizon's business units on electronic discovery while developing new technologies and strategies that meet the goals of Rule 1 of The Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. He has also testified as Verizon's 30(b)(6) witness for discovery-related inquiries in other matters. Mr. Oot has testified before the United States Judicial Conference's Advisory Committee on the Federal Rules of Evidence where he presented Verizon's position and contributed language included in its draft to the Judicial Conference. He actively participates in The Sedona Conference Working Group on Electronic Document Retention and Production (WG1).

JOY HOLLEY, ESQ. DIRECTOR OF EDISCOVERY SERVICES & LITIGATION SUPPORT BRYAN CAVE LLP ST. LOUIS, MISSOURI

Joy Holley is an experienced attorney who has spent 13 years practicing in several Bryan Cave litigation client service groups. In her current role, Joy directs the Firm's internal litigation technology specialists, and a unit of Bryan Cave Discovery Attorneys who help clients and case teams navigate eDiscovery issues. Joy helps Bryan Cave lawyers strategize the most efficient and cost effective eDiscovery solutions to meet case-specific demands, including negotiation of vendor relationships, leveraging internal project and data management, alternative fee arrangements, and the use of trusted and pre-screened agency attorneys who are closely supervised by Bryan Cave lawyers to drive down the cost of electronic document reviews.

PROFESSOR ELI WALD, ESQ.
UNIVERSITY OF DENVER - STURM COLLEGE OF LAW
DENVER, COLORADO

Eli Wald is the Charles W. Delaney Jr. Professor of Law at the University of Denver Sturm College of Law. A legal ethics and legal profession scholar, Wald has written on topics such as increased lawyer mobility, attorney-client communications, the nationalization and globalization of law practice, and the structure and organization of law firms. His current research explores the interplay of equality, diversity, implicit bias and discrimination in the legal profession. Wald's work has appeared in leading journals such as the Stanford, Fordham, Wisconsin and University of Colorado law reviews, and the Georgetown Journal of Legal Ethics. Prof. Wald is a member of the Colorado Supreme Court Standing Committee on the Colorado Rules of Professional Conduct, a member of the Colorado State Bar Association's Ethics Committee and a member of the Colorado Chief Justice's Commission on the Legal Profession. He holds SJD and LL.M. degrees from Harvard Law School and LL.B. and B.A. degrees from Tel-Aviv University. Prior to joining the Sturm College of Law Wald was a litigation associate at Paul, Weiss, Rifkind, Wharton & Garrison in New York City.

PAIGE HUNT WOJCIK
DIRECTOR OF EDISCOVERY SERVICES

Paige Hunt Wojcik is the Director of E-Discovery Services for Perkins Coie. Ms. Hunt provides consultative support to attorneys and clients relating to information and records management, litigation readiness, electronic discovery and legal technology solutions. Paige has worked with legal teams, in-house counsel, corporate IT personnel and service providers to manage the electronic discovery component of litigation matters across many industries for over 11 years. Ms. Hunt also manages her firm's Practice Technology Services department which consults with the firm's legal teams and their clients on the strategic application of technology to legal matters to increase efficiencies and control costs. Paige leads the Document Review Centers, which provides staff attorneys for document review and discovery related tasks at reduced rates. Paige also directs the litigation paralegal training program.

