

COALSP'S MARCH 2, 2007 "EDISCOVERY SUMMIT" SPEAKER PANEL

JAMES BATSON, ESQ.

Liddle & Robinson, LLP - New York, New York

Attorney Batson was Plaintiff Laura Zubulake's attorney in the landmark case Zubulake v. UBS Warburg, et al. Mr. Batson has been a speaker for several national organizations discussing the historical significance of the Zubulake case and the widely followed Orders of United States District Court Judge Shira Scheindlin.

MAGISTRATE JUDGE CRAIG B. SHAFFER

United States District Court - District of Colorado

Magistrate Judge Shaffer has served as a Magistrate Judge for the USDC, District of Colorado since 2001. Magistrate Judge Shaffer is also an Adjunct Professor at the University of Denver, Sturm College of Law. He also serves on the Sedona Conference Advisory Board, and has given several presentations concerning the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure revisions concerning electronic discovery and evidence.

DAVID ISOM, ESQ.

Greenberg, Traurig, LLP - Denver, Colorado

Attorney David K. Isom consults throughout the country on electronic discovery and electronic document retention. Mr. Isom has published numerous articles on electronic discovery and depositions, including recently, "Electronic Discovery Primer for Judges," and has presented at seminars on electronic discovery, electronic document retention, information security, and ethics throughout the United States. Additionally, Mr. Isom has served on the Sedona Conference Working Group II: Public Access and Protective Orders, advising regarding electronic discovery and electronic filing.

CHARLES MITCHELL, ESQ.

Hogan & Hartson - Denver, Colorado

Attorney Charles Mitchell's practice focuses on a broad range of complex civil litigation matters, including commercial contract litigation, shareholder suits, business torts, employment matters, False Claims Act litigation, and land use disputes. In addition, Mr. Mitchell represents public companies and individuals in connection with government investigations and administrative proceedings brought by the enforcement division of the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission, conducting internal investigations, and providing guidance regarding corporate governance and compliance issues. Mr. Mitchell has conducted seminars in the past on issues surrounding internal investigations and electronic document collection and management.

ERIN EISELEIN, ESQ.

Davis Graham & Stubbs, LLP - Denver, Colorado

Attorney Erin Eiselein was recently chosen as a speaker at a national electronic discovery symposium in New York City. She is a frequent speaker on electronic discovery, and has written several articles on the topic including those published in the Colorado Lawyer and Law Technology News.

LINO LIPINSKY, ESQ.

McKenna, Long & Aldridge, LLP - Denver, Colorado

Attorney Lino Lipinsky counsels clients and writes on legal issues arising from technology. He is a leader of his firm's technology practice group.

